

Third Wave Business Systems Again Ranked in Accounting Technology VAR 100 List

NEW JERSEY (September 23, 2010) - Accounting Today has ranked Third Wave Business Systems in their annual listing of the Top 100 Value Added Resellers (VARs) in the United States. The August 2010 issue included the rankings, recognizing companies that market mid-level accounting software packages based on annual revenue figures.

Accounting Technology is a trade magazine addressing the use of technology within accounting while also providing up-to-date information on technology services and products.

Third Wave Business Systems has performed successful implementations of business management systems for nearly 20 years in a variety of industries, with a strong focus on small and medium sized companies in professional services, manufacturing and distribution industries. Third Wave consultants bridge the gap between business savvy and technical excellence to assure customers achieve their objectives with an easy to use, efficient and technically sound business management systems.

“Third Wave offers businesses Outside-the-box Business Management System solutions, combining proven business management systems with custom development,” said Korey Lind, CEO of Third Wave Business Systems. “Our goal in every implementation is to make our clients better, faster and more profitable. We accomplish that goal by consistently aligning business processes with strategy.”

Third Wave Business Systems is recognized as a Microsoft Gold Certified Partner, SAP Business One Gold Partner, and SAP Pinnacle Award recipient. Third Wave has been an Accounting Technology “Top 100 VAR” every year since 2002. In addition to delivering superior business management systems, Third Wave is a top developer of SAP Business One add-ons, providing enhancements to meet specific business needs.

For more information, visit www.twbs.com or email twrespond@twbs.com.